by piece, and if I even let them take my body to burn it, but am without love, it will do me no good whatever. Love is always patient and kind; it is never jealous; love is never boastful or conceited; it is never rude or selfish; it does not take offence, and is not resentful. Love takes no pleasure in other people's sins but delights in the truth; it is always ready to excuse, to trust, to hope, and to endure whatever comes. Love does not come to an end.

The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God

• GOSPEL •

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. He began to speak. This is what he taught them: 'How happy are the poor in spirit: theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Happy the gentle: they shall have the earth for their heritage. Happy those who mourn: they shall be comforted. Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right: they shall be satisfied. Happy the merciful: they shall have mercy shown them. Happy the pure in heart: they shall see God. Happy the peacemakers: they shall be called sons of God. Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right: theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account. Rejoice and be glad for your reward will be great in heaven.'

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

• RITE OF MARRIAGE •

Priest: Lynn and Robert, you have come to this church so that the Lord may seal your love in the presence of the priest and this community. Christ blesses this love. He has already consecrated you in baptism; now by a special sacrament he strengthens you to fulfil the duties of your married life.

Priest: Lynn and Robert you are about to celebrate this sacrament. Have you come here of your own free will and choice and without compulsion to marry each other?

Both: We have.

Fr. Moloney: Will you love and honour each other in marriage all the days of your life?

Both: We will.

Fr. Moloney: Are you willing to accept, with love, the children God may send you and bring them up in accordance with the laws of Christ and his church?

Both: We are.

• PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL •

We pray for Lynn and Robert as they begin their married life together. May their home be full of joy and laughter, may God give them good health and may they always find happiness in each other.

DRESS CODE

Informing your guests of the dress code helps set the tone for the formality or informality of your celebration, providing them the chance to dress appropriately. This consideration will be appreciated, as it prevents any potential discomfort from feeling underdressed or overdressed. To ensure everyone is aware, it's effective to include the dress code at the bottom of your invitation. Alternatively, you can also place this information on a separate details card or on your wedding website.

BLACK TIE

Traditionally, Black Tie attire indicates that men should don tuxedos, while women are expected to wear formal, floor-length gowns. However, contemporary interpretations often allow women to opt for elegant knee-length dresses as well.

FORMAL ATTIRE

Slightly more relaxed than Black Tie, Formal attire suggests men may wear tuxedos or choose a sharp suit with a tie. For women, both long and knee-length formal dresses are appropriate.

COCKTAIL DRESS CODE

For a Cocktail dress code, men should wear smart suit trousers paired with a crisp shirt, which may be worn with or without a tie. Women are encouraged to wear stylish cocktail dresses, typically around knee-length.

BEACH CHIC

Ideal for beachside weddings, Beach Chic encourages guests to dress in lighter, less formal attire suitable for warm weather and sandy locales.

FESTIVE ATTIRE

Align your outfit with the event's theme for a Festive attire dress code. Outfits should be fun and expressive, reflecting the playful spirit of the occasion.

CASUAL DRESS CODE

Casual dress means guests have the freedom to wear what they feel comfortable in, without the constraints of formal dress codes.
